

JARVIS, Fred M., Alta
Buena Vista County
Republican

Born in Jackson County, near Brownstown, Ind., Dec. 2, 1897. Educated in the rural and Brownstown public schools. In February, 1918, became affiliated with Carl Reuber Motor Company, at Schaller, Iowa. Was owner of Ford agency from 1929 to 1938. Is licensed real estate broker. Served with the Iowa Department of Agriculture from 1939 to 1953. Married Elizabeth E. Robinson, of Schaller, May 28, 1934, and is the father of two children: Byford D., age 27, who is principal of the high school at Scranton, Iowa, and L. Joan, age 24, who is teaching at a Presbyterian boys' school in Memphis, Tenn. Moved from Schaller to farm near Alta in 1946, and has been engaged in farming since 1954. Member of Masonic Lodge, York Rite, Shrine. Serving fourth term.

JARVIS, Fred M., Alta
Buena Vista County
Republican

Born in Jackson County, near Brownstown, Ind., Dec. 2, 1897. Educated in the rural and Brownstown public schools. In February, 1918, he affiliated with the Carl Reuber Motor Company, at Schaller, Iowa. Was owner of Ford agency from 1929 to 1933. Is licensed real estate broker. Served with the Iowa Department of Agriculture from 1939 to 1953. Married Elizabeth E. Robinson, of Schaller, May 28, 1934, and is the father of two children, Byford D., age 25, who is a law student at the State University of Iowa, and L. Joan, age 22, who is a graduate of Macalester College, St. Paul, and now teaching in the public schools of St. Paul. Moved from Schaller to farm near Alta in 1946, and has been engaged in livestock and grain farming there since 1954. Active in Republican party in Sac and Buena Vista Counties. Member Presbyterian Church and Masonic bodies. Serving third term.

